

JUDGE Faith

A whole new faith in court

You probably know Faith Jenkins best for her extensive legal analysis on Fox News, MSNBC and CNN. But what you don't know is her journey. From a Louisiana beauty queen to a Wall Street attorney to a tough New York City prosecutor. She's traveled nearly every walk of life, fighting adversity every step of the way. She worked hard to graduate first in her law class and even harder putting away some of the most dangerous criminals in the country. Now, she will bring her tough no-nonsense style of justice into her own courtroom on her own show...JUDGE FAITH. So put your faith in her AND her decisions, because she is.....JUDGE FAITH!
